DISCLOSURE

A broker shall provide the owner with at least the following disclosures no later than the time the application for the life settlement contract.

1. That there are possible alternatives to a life settlement contract including, but not limited to, accelerated death benefits offered by the issuer of the life insurance policy.
2. That some or all of the proceeds of the life settlement contract may be taxable and assistance should be sought from a professional tax adviser.
3. That proceeds of the life settlement contract could be subject to the claims of creditors.
4. That receipt of the proceeds of a life settlement contract may adversely affect the recipient's eligibility for public assistance or other government benefits or entitlements, and that advice should be obtained from the appropriate agencies.
5. That the owner has the right to terminate a life settlement contract within fifteen (15) days of the date it is executed by all parties and the owner has received the disclosures contained herein. Rescission, if exercised by the owner, is effective only if both notice of the rescission is given, and the owner repays all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest paid on account of the provider within the rescission period. If the insured dies during the rescission period, the contract shall be deemed to have been rescinded, subject to repayment by the owner or the owner's estate of all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest to the provider;
6. That proceeds will be sent to owner within three (3) business days after the provider has received the insurer's or group administrator's written acknowledgment that ownership of the policy or interest in the certificate has been transferred and the beneficiary has been designated in accordance with the terms of the life settlement contract
7. That entering into a life settlement contract may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy or certificate of a group policy to be forfeited by the owner, and assistance should be sought from a professional financial adviser.
8. That the commissioner shall require delivery of a buyer's guide or a similar consumer advisory package in the form prescribed by the commissioner to owners during the solicitation process
9. That all medical, financial, or personal information solicited or obtained by a provider or broker about an insured, including the insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse or significant other, may be disclosed as necessary to effect the life settlement between the owner and the provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two years.

10. The commissioner shall require providers and brokers to print separate signed fraud warnings on their applications and on their life settlement contracts is as follows: "Any person who knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance or life settlement contract is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison."
11. The insured may be contacted by either the provider or its authorized representative for the purpose of determining the insured's health status or to verify the address. This contact is limited to once every three months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one year, and no more than once per month if the insured has a life expectancy one year or less.
12. The affiliation, in any, between the provider and the issuer of the insurance policy to be settled.
13. A change of ownership could in the future limit the insured's ability to purchase future insurance on the insured's life because there is a limit to how much coverage insurers will issue on one life.
14. The written disclosures shall be conspicuously displayed in any life settlement contract furnished to the owner by a provider including any affiliations or contractual arrangements between the provider and the broker

The broker (LIS) shall provide the owner and the provider with at least the following disclosures no later than the date the life settlement contract is signed by all parties. The disclosure shall be conspicuously displayed in the life settlement contract or in a separate document signed by the owner and provide all of the following information:

1. The name, business address, and telephone number of the broker.
2. A full, complete, and accurate description of all offers, counteroffers, acceptances, and rejections relating to the proposed life settlement contract
3. A written disclosure of any affiliations or contractual arrangements between the broker and any person making an offer in connection with the proposed life settlement contracts.
4. The name of each broker who receives compensation and the amount of compensation received by that broker, which compensation includes anything of value paid or given to the broker in connection with the life settlement contract.
5. A complete reconciliation of the gross offer or bid by the provider to the net amount of proceeds or value to be received by the owner. For the purpose of this section, gross offer or bid shall mean the total amount or value offered by the provider for the purchase of one or more life insurance policies, inclusive of commissions and fees.
6. The failure to provide the disclosures or rights described in the section shall be deemed an unfair trade practice pursuant to section 27-72-17
