DISCLOSURE

The owner of the life insurance policy to be settled should be aware of the following:

1. That there are possible alternatives to a life settlement, including any accelerated death benefits loans, or other benefits offered under the owner's life insurance policy.
2. That some or all of the proceeds of the life settlement may be taxable under federal income tax and state income taxes, and assistance should be sought from a professional tax advisor.
3. That proceeds of the life settlement could be subject to the claims of creditors.
4. That receipt of the proceeds of a life settlement may adversely affect the owner's eligibility for Medicaid or other government benefits or entitlements, and advice should be obtained from the appropriate government agencies.
5. The life settlement provider company, not the owner, may compensate LIS based on a formula that is a percentage of the face value of the life insurance policy. For example, compensation for a $100,000 policy could be: $8\% \times $100,000$ (face value) = $8,000.00.
6. That the owner has the right to terminate a life settlement within fifteen (15) calendar days after the receipt of the life settlement proceeds by the owner, as provided by Subsection 31A-36-109(7). If the insured dies during the rescission period, the settlement is deemed to have been rescinded. Rescission is subject to repayment of all life settlement proceeds and any premiums, loans and loan interest to the life settlement provider.
7. That funds will be sent to owner within three (3) business days after the life settlement provider has received the insurer or group administrator's acknowledgment that ownership of the policy or interest in the certificate has been transferred and the beneficiary has been designated.
8. That entering into a life settlement may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy or certificate, to be forfeited by the owner. Assistance should be sought from a financial adviser.
9. That all medical, financial, or personal information solicited or obtained by a life settlement provider or producer about an insured, including the insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse or a significant other may be disclosed as necessary to effect the life settlement between the owner and the life settlement provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two years.

10. That following the execution of a life settlement the insured may be contacted for the purpose of determining the insured's health status and to confirm the insured's residential or business street address and telephone number. This contact shall be limited to once every three months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one year, and no more than once per month if the insured has a life expectancy of one year or less. All such contacts shall be made only by a life settlement provider licensed in the state in which the owner resided at the time of the life settlement, or by the authorized representative of a duly licensed life settlement provider.

Disclosure to the owner shall include distribution of a copy of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) Life Settlement brochure that describes the process of life settlements.
