AUTHORIZATION FOR DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

I, _____ (Name of Individual), authorize disclosure of my protected health information as defined under the privacy regulations promulgated pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“PHI”) as follows:

1. Classes of Persons Authorized to Disclose My Protected Health Information: I authorize each doctor, hospital, nurse, pharmacy, physician, physician practice group, and any other type of health care provider (each, an “HCP”) having any PHI about me to disclose any and all of my PHI as provided under this authorization. I authorize each Authorized HCP to rely upon a photo static or facsimile copy or other reproduction of this authorization.

2. Classes of Persons Authorized to Receive My Protected Health Information: I authorize each Authorized HCP to disclose my PHI under this authorization to Life Insurance Settlements, Inc. and any of its affiliates and any of their directors, officers, employees, agents, independent contractors, consultants, medical underwriters, lenders, financing entities, stop-loss reinsurers, service providers or other representatives (each, an “Authorized Recipient”).

3. Protected Health Information Authorized for Disclosure: This authorization shall apply to any and all of my health and medical data, information and records, whether or not personally or individually identifiable or protected under any federal or state confidentiality or privacy laws or regulations. This information may include information concerning communicable diseases such as Human Immunodeficiency Virus (“HIV”) and Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (“AIDS”), mental illness (except for psychotherapy notes), chemical or alcohol dependency, laboratory test results, medical history, treatment, billing, insurance or any other such related information.

4. Purpose of Disclosure: This authorization and all disclosures of my PHI made under this authorization are for purposes of allowing the Authorized Recipient (1) to analyze, assess, evaluate or underwrite my health or medical condition, or life expectancy, in connection with the possible sale of any life insurance policy, or certificate of life insurance, under which my life is insured to the Authorized Recipient and (2) to monitor, track or verify my health or medical status and condition in connection with any life insurance policy under which my life is insured, including any conversions thereof or replacements therefore, that Life Insurance Settlements, Inc. brokers.

5. Expiration: I understand this authorization will remain in effect for a maximum of one (1) year from the date of signature or until the specific date of _____.

6. Right to Revoke Authorization: I acknowledge and understand that I may revoke this authorization any time with respect to any Authorized HCP by notifying such Authorized HCP in writing of my revocation of this authorization and delivering my revocation by mail or personal delivery at such address designated to me by such Authorized HCP; provided, that, any revocation of this authorization shall not apply to the extent that the Authorized HCP has taken action in reliance upon this authorization prior to receiving written notice of my revocation.

I further understand that, as a result of this authorization, there is the potential for my PHI that is disclosed by any Authorized HCP to an Authorized Recipient to be subject to redisclosure by the Authorized Recipient and my PHI that is disclosed to such Authorized Recipient may no longer be protected by the HIPAA Privacy Regulations.

I certify that I am executing and delivering this authorization freely and unilaterally and that all information contained in this authorization is true and correct. The owner of the life insurance policy, as well as each person insured by the life insurance policy (an insured), should be aware of the following:

1. That there are possible alternatives to life settlement contracts for persons who have a catastrophic or life-threatening illness including, but not limited to, accelerated benefits offered by the issuer of a life insurance policy.
2. That some or all of the proceeds of the life settlement could be taxable, and assistance should be sought from a personal tax advisor.
3. That proceeds from a life settlement contract could be subject to the claims of creditors.
4. That receipt of proceeds from a life settlement contract could adversely affect the recipient's eligibility for Public assistance or other government benefits or entitlements and advice should be obtained from the appropriate agencies.
5. That the owner has a right to terminate a life settlement contract within 15 days of the date it is executed by all parties, and the owner has received the disclosures required by life settlements act.
Rescission, if exercised by the owner, is effective only if both notice of the rescission is given, and the owner repays all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest paid on account of provider within the rescission period. If the insured dies during the rescission period the contracts shall be deemed to have been rescinded subject to repayment by the owner or the owner's estate of all proceeds and any premiums, loans and loan interest to provider;
6. Proceeds will be sent to the owner within three business days after the provider has received the insurer or group administrator's acknowledgement that ownership of the policy or interest in the certificate has been transferred and the beneficiary has been designated in accordance with the terms of the life settlement contract;
7. Entering into a life settlement contract may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy to be forfeited by the owner and that assistance should be sought from a professional financial advisor;
8. The life settlement provider company, not the owner, may compensate LIS based on a formula that is a percentage of the face value of the life insurance policy. For example, compensation for a $100,000 policy could be:  $8\% \times $100,000$  (face value) = $8,000.00. LIS is a broker and a broker represents exclusively the owner, and not the insurer or the provider or any other person, and owes a fiduciary duty to the owner, including a duty to act according to the owner's instructions and in the best interest of the owner.
9. That the commissioner may require delivery of a buyer's guide or a similar consumer advisory package in the form prescribed by the commissioner to owners during the solicitation process.
10. That all medical, financial, or personal information solicited or obtained by a provider or broker about an insured, including the insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse or significant other, may be disclosed as necessary to effect the life settlement contract between the owner and the provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two years.

LIS WA disclosure (a)

11. The insured may be contacted by either the provider or broker or its authorized representative for the purpose of determining the insured's health status and/or to confirm the insured's residential or business street address. This contact is limited to once every three months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one year, and no more than once per month if the insured has a life expectancy one year or less
12. The Life Settlement Provider will advise owner the name, business address, and telephone number of the independent third-party escrow agent no later than the date of the life settlement contract. The owner may inspect or receive copies of the relevant escrow or trust agreements or documents.
13. The change of ownership could in the future limit the insured's ability to purchase future insurance on the insured's life because there is a limit to how much coverage insurers will issue on one life.

The life settlement broker (LIS) shall provide the owner with at least the following disclosures no later than the date the life settlement contract is signed by all parties. The disclosure shall be conspicuously displayed in the life settlement contract or in a separate document signed by the owner and provide all of the following information:

- a. The name, business address, and telephone number of the life settlement broker.*
- b. A full, complete, and accurate description of all offers, counteroffers, acceptances, and rejections relating to the proposed life settlement contract*
- c. Any affiliations or contractual arrangements between the broker and any person making an offer in connection with the proposed life settlement contracts.*
- d. The name of each broker who receives compensation and the amount of compensation received by that broker, which compensation includes anything of value paid or given to the broker in connection with the life settlement contract*
- e. A complete reconciliation of the gross offer or bid by the provider to the net amount of proceeds or value to be received by the owner. For the purpose of this section, gross offer or bid means the total amount or value offered by the provider for the purchase of one or more life insurance policies, inclusive of commissions and fees,*
- f. The failure to provide the disclosures or rights described in this section is an unfair trade practice pursuant to Chapter 104, Laws of 2009.*

Any person who knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance or life settlement contract is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison
