DISCLOSURE

As a Life Settlement broker firm, Life Insurance Settlements, Inc. shall disclose to the owner, in a separate document that is signed by the owner and the broker, at least all of the following information no later than the time the application for the life settlement is signed by all parties

1. That there are possible alternatives to life settlement contracts, including any accelerated death benefits or policy loans offered under the owner's policy.
2. That the broker represents exclusively the owner, and not the insurer or the provider, and owes a fiduciary duty to the owner, including the duty to act according to the owner's instructions and in the best interest of the owner.
3. That some or all of the life settlement proceeds may be taxable under the federal income tax and state franchise and income tax laws, and the owner should seek assistance from a professional tax advisor.
4. That the life settlement proceeds may be subject to the claims of creditors.
5. That receipt of proceeds from a life settlement may adversely affect the owner's eligibility for Medical assistance or other government benefits and that he or she should seek advice from any appropriate agencies.
6. The life settlement provider company, not the owner, may compensate LIS based on a formula that is a percentage of the face value of the life insurance policy. For example, compensation for a $100,000 policy could be: $8\% \times $100,000$ (face value) = $8,000.00.
7. That the owner has a right to rescind a life settlement contract before the earlier of 30 calendar days after the date upon which the life settlement contract is executed by all parties 15 calendar days after the life settlement proceeds have been paid to the owner, as provided in sub. (11) (d). Rescission, if exercised by the owner, is effective only if both notice of the rescission is given and the owner repays all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest paid on account of the life settlement within the rescission period. If the insured dies during the rescission period, the life settlement contract is rescinded, subject to repayment by the owner or the owner's estate to the provider or purchaser of all life settlement proceeds, and any premiums, loans, and loan interest that have been paid by the provider or purchaser, which shall be repaid within 60 calendar days of the death of the insured.
8. That funds will be sent to the owner within 3 business days after the provider has received the insurer's or group administrator's written acknowledgement that the ownership of the policy or interest in the certificate has been transferred and the beneficiary has been designated.
9. That entering into a life settlement contract may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy, to be forfeited by the owner, and the owner should seek assistance from a professional financial advisor.

10. The language: “All medical, financial, or personal information solicited or obtained by a provider or broker about an insured, including the insured’s identity or the identity of family members, a spouse, or a significant other, may be disclosed as necessary to effect the life settlement between the owner and provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission every two years.”
11. That, following execution of a life settlement contract, the insured may be contacted for the purpose of determining the insured’s health status and to confirm the insured’s residential or business street address and telephone number, or as otherwise allowed in this section. This contact shall be limited to once every 3 months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one year and no more than once per month if the insured has a life expectancy of one year or less. All such contacts with the insured shall be made only by a provider licensed in the state in which the owner resided at the time of the life settlement, or by an authorized representative of the provider.
12. At the time the disclosures in subd.1. are provided, the broker or provider shall provide to the owner a brochure describing the process of life settlements that is approved by the commissioner.
13. A broker shall disclose to the owner, either conspicuously displayed in the life settlement contract or in a separate document signed by the owner, at least all the following information no later than the date the life settlement contract is signed by all parties:
 1. The name, business address, and telephone number of the broker.
 2. A full, complete, and accurate description of all offers, counteroffers, acceptances, and rejections related to the proposed life settlement contract.
 3. A written statement of any affiliation or contractual arrangement between the broker and any person making an offer in connection with the proposed life settlement contact.
 4. The amount of the broker’s compensation, including anything of value paid or given to the broker for the placement of the policy.
 5. If any portion of the broker’s compensation is taken from a proposed life settlement, the total amount of the life settlement offer and the percentage of the life settlement comprised by the broker’s compensation
