DISCLOSURE TO LIFE SETTLEMENT APPLICANT

IMPORTANT – PLEASE READ THIS DISCLOSURE FORM. You should read the following points carefully and seek financial, insurance, tax and other advice where appropriate.

1. There are possible alternatives to a life settlement, including any accelerated death benefits, loans, or other benefits offered under the owner's life insurance policy.
2. Some or all of the proceeds of the life settlement may be taxable under federal and state income taxes, and assistance should be sought from a professional tax advisor.
3. Proceeds of the life settlement could be subject to the claims of creditors.
4. Receipt of the proceeds of a life settlement may adversely affect the owner's eligibility for Medicaid or other government benefits or entitlements, and advice should be obtained from the appropriate government agencies.
5. The owner has the right to rescind a life settlement within 15 calendar days after the receipt of the life settlement proceeds by the owner as provided by the Utah Administrative Code. If the insured dies during the rescission period, the settlement is deemed to have been rescinded. Rescission is subject to repayment of all life settlement proceeds and any premiums, loans and loan interest to the life settlement provider.
6. Funds will be sent to the owner within three business days after the life settlement provider has received the insurer or group administrator's written acknowledgment that ownership of the policy or interest in the certificate has been transferred and the beneficiary has been designated.
7. Entering into a life settlement may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy or certificate, to be forfeited by the owner. Assistance should be sought from a financial adviser.
8. The owner shall include receive a copy of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) Life Settlement brochure that describes the process of life settlements.

If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two years.
10. This contact shall be limited to once every three months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one year, and no more than once per month if the insured has a life expectancy of one year or less. All such contacts shall be made only by a life settlement provider licensed in the state in which the owner resided at the time of the life settlement, or by the authorized representative of a duly licensed life settlement provider.

11. The life settlement provider company, not the policy owner, may compensate LIS based on a formula that is a percentage of the face value of the life insurance policy. For example, compensation for a $100,000 policy could be: $8\% \times $100,000$ (face value) = $8,000.00. However, compensation may not exceed the amount of proceeds to the policy owner.

LIFE INSURANCE POLICY OWNER'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT: This disclosure is being delivered as a requirement of the Utah Department of Insurance. I have read and fully understand this disclosure form and received a copy of the NAIC consumer brochure "Selling Your Life Insurance Policy – Understanding Life Settlements".
